MR. W. D. WALLIN.

Secretary of the Crab Orchard Fair, who has the interest of the enterprise at heart.

RINGLETS.

The hotels are crowded but they are taking care of the crowd remarkably well.

A. B. C. Dinwiddie and Miss Julia Stagg, of Hustonville, spent Wednesday at the fair.

Miss Sallie McElroy, of Lebanon, one of the prettiest girls in Kentucky, is at Crab Orchard Springs.

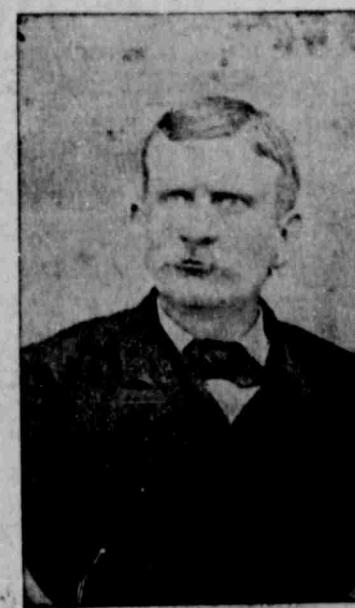

There are 27 widows in Crab Orchard. May be the number will decrease after the bustle of the fair is over.

Miss Marietta Crow, of Louisville, is at Crab Orchard Springs and is one of the prettiest of fair visitors here.

Matt Cohen, of Richmond, was at the fair Wednesday but did not bring his good string of horses with him.

R. H. Bronaugh is up and all right after his severe spell. His friends are glad to see him "on his feet" again.

Chief of Police J. G. Riddle is keeping perfect order. He and his deputies are to be congratulated on their good work.

RING MASTER J. P. CHANDLER.

The music by Saxton & Trost is the sweetest ever. "Old Henry" knows how to make music for fairs as well as he does for hops.

Col. J. P. Chandler is the boss ring master of this section. He has been engaged for the Hustonville fair next week at a big outlay of money.

The hops at the Springs each evening are delightful special features. The light fantastic is tripped until a late hour to the sweet strains of Saxton's fine music.

A little son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Mason Morris Tuesday night. He came just in time to assist his father as treasurer of the Crab Orchard fair.

The efficient secretary, W. D. Wallin, is being assisted by genial Wade Perkins. William Mason Morris, Jr., was too busy at home to assist his father in his arduous duties as treasurer.

Mr. D. B. Carson and handsome daughter, Miss Blanche Carson, of Atlanta, came up to the fair. Mr. Carson has done well since he left Crab Orchard and is now one of the Gate City's staunchest citizens. Miss Zilpah Brooks accompanied them from Atlanta.

The following telegram from Everett, Washington, was received by the association Wednesday: "Success to the best fair, the best town in the State or in the union. J. C. Brooks."

"Joe" is an old Crab Orchard boy and his thoughts will turn to his home town many times this week, we opine.

HUSTONVILLE.

Born, to the wife of C. W. Adams yesterday, a nine-pound boy.

Everything is in readiness for the opening of the best fair ever held in the county.

A pure white snipe of the poke species (fly-up-the-creek) was killed near Mt. Salem last week.

Miss Pearl Rose, of Junction City, with her guest, Miss Aline Voght, of Louisville, were guests of Miss Katherine Hall.

Twenty people will be with the Storms aggregation the coming week and participate in the band and orchestra music and minstrel work at the opera house on nights of the 26th and 27th. Popular prices.

Some mischievous parties have been putting chewing gum into the key holes of locks on the mail boxes of Route No. 1 from here. The penalty is a fine or imprisonment or possibly both; so it is best that you heed this warning.

On account of the high grade of lambs raised in this locality the shipments from here continue to go East and fancy prices are being realized by the shippers. Cowan & McCormack and Lutes & Co. shipped four double decks this week. Lutes & Co. bought in Pulaski two double decks of lambs and two of ewes.

Prominent among the arrivals at Hotel Weatherford this week were Hon. P. M. McRoberts and J. L. Totten, Stanford; Prof. Wilson, Lexington; J. E. Chilton, Louisville; H. R. Hay, of Georgetown; C. H. Jewell, St. Louis; Tone Hann, Columbia; W. S. Stone and wife, Liberty; J. H. McCrackin, Lexington; James Gibony, Danville.

PREACHERSVILLE.

Mrs. Jesse Traylor continues to improve. Mrs. Ragan is better.

The Misses Davis gave an elegant party in honor of pretty Miss Carrie Givens, of Middlesboro. Carl B. King and David Lunsford were in attendance and report a most enjoyable time.

Jesse Fox was very painfully injured by a horse kick on his ankle. Besides being badly bruised a blood vessel was broken. Prompt surgical attention was secured and his foot is doing nicely.

The Baptist brethren have at a considerable expense, painted and papered their church and put transparent paper on the windows. This has added greatly to the appearance of both exterior and interior. The work was done by J. F. Shaw, a skillful workman, and one who knows his business.

J. P. Rodgers sold a horse to Thomas Stigall for $87.50. Silas Anderson engaged a bunch of shoats to E. P. Woods at 5c. Brown & Lawson bought 115 lambs of D. M. Anderson at $4.04. Miss Susie Ragan has returned to her home at Williamsburg. John Cummins has returned from Russell county, Va., bringing S. D. Fraley with him. J. L. Hutchins and wife have returned from Wilmore. J. H. Kennedy and wife, of Indianapolis, are with relatives here. Misses Anna Ashlock and Ida Holtzclaw, of Gilberts Creek, visited at D. M. Anderson's.

Bent Her Double.

"I knew no one for four weeks when I was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Annie Hunter, of Pittsburg, Pa. "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double, and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was rescued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney disorders; at G. L. Penny's, Stanford, Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard; price 50c.

Nathaniel Gibbs Ingraham has filed suit in Glasgow against his wife asking the enforcement of an alleged antenuptial agreement, under which he claims $5,500 a year. Mrs. Ingraham claims fraud and charges Ingraham with using insidious devices, such as fortune telling, to induce her to divorce her former husband, Reginald H. Ward, and marry him.

A Surprise Party.

A pleasant surprise party may be given to your stomach and liver, by taking a medicine which will relieve their pain and discomfort, viz: Dr. King's New Life Pills. They are a most wonderful remedy, affording sure relief and cure for headache, dizziness and constipation 25c at Penny's Drug Store, Stanford, Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard.

Friend—When are you going to take your vacation?
Mr. Meekin—I'm taking it now. My wife and daughters are at the seaside.

SIGHT IS PRICELESS.

You can not afford to risk your sight by purchasing glasses from any itinerant spectacle peddler that passes through your town. If you notice a defect in your horse's eye, you immediately send for a veterinary, because he will give immediate relief in all cases of TIRED, WEAK or INFLAMED EYES, no matter from what cause. Absolutely harmless, perfectly delightful to use, and always fresh. Has been endorsed by thousands of professional and business men. Once tried always used.

THE IKLENZA BATH

Our DR. H. C. W. ARNZ will be in Stanford on July 27, 28 and 29, at the St. Asaph Hotel. Examinations free whether you need or buy glasses or not. A call is respectfully solicited.

H. C. W. ARNZ & CO., Louisville, Ky.

Great Clearing Sale!

This sale is the beginning of a series of sales, which will give the buying public of this locality the greatest bargain opportunities they ever had. This is not the Ordinary Sort of Clearing Sale. My purchases last Spring were very large; the accumulation of Odds and Ends and broken lots is naturally larger than ever before. My unalterable rule is not to carry any goods over from one season to another. We inaugurate this great selling event and invite every one within a day's ride of my store to come and join in the greatest of bargain feasts. Tell your friends and neighbors that Men's $15 Suits are cut to $10.98; $12.50 Suits to $8.98; $10 Suits to $7.48; $7.50 Suits to $5.48; $5 Suits to $3.98. Also Youth's and Boys' Suits, Odd Pants, Dry Goods, Shoes, Hats and Caps, Ladies' and Gents' Furnishings will go accordingly.
